McCraw And Ferguson Make Girls' All-Seminole Team

Mary Louise McCraw and Pat Ferguson have been named to the Seminole District All-Girls team, picked by the Lynchburg News sports staff in cooperation with coaches in the district. McCraw and Ferguson made the first team for the Raiderettes and Kay Paulette got honorable mention as the Appomattox team was well represented.

McCraw, a sophomore, was the only non-senior on the team. She averaged about 13 points per game during the past season and played a big part in the Raiderettes 12 - 4 season under coach, Mrs. Carter Martin. Her best point output in a single game was the 22 she scored in the second game of the season against Altavista.

Ferguson, a senior, was not as effective in scoring this year as she has been in the past, averaged around six points per game. She was a spark plug on defense and helped set up many plays on offense with her quick passes to the open teammates. She would have four and five assist per game and was a very capable ball handler. Her best output in scoring was in her last home game when she hit for 12 points against Gretna.

Paulette, a senior, averaged about six points per game for the Raiderettes, and did a good job in the rebounding department for them. She was very effective on shots close the basket. She hit in double figures in only two games, 11 each time. They were scored against Gretna over there and Gretna here at home in the last home game of the season.

The Raiderettes had an average of about 39 points per game during the regular 15 game season and allowed the opponents an average of about 28 per game. They scored 50 or more points four times with 56 being the highest. They were held below the 30 mark only once, 21 by SR in a slow down game which they lost 23-21. On three different occasions the opponents did not reach the 20 mark.

The Raiderettes had two big wins that they really enjoyed during the year. One of them was a win over Rustburg in overtime on the Rustburg court that snapped an eight game winning streak and the other was over E. C. Glass, who came to Appomattox undefeated, until the Raiderettes set them back 34-25.

Pat Ferguson and Kay Paulette were the only two seniors on the team this past year, so the Raiderettes should be very strong next year. McCraw will be back along with Pat Book, Jane Hix, Joan Coleman and a host of others that saw a lot of action.

Congratulations to Mrs. Martin and her Raiderettes on a final season and good luck on the coming year.

Trophy Winners

Here are some of the county trophy winners from the 4-H speech contest March 1 at Appomattox Intermediate School. Salute To Scouting!

It all began on March 12, 1912; the place was Savannah, Georgia; the woman was Juliette Gordon Low, who having just returned from a visit with Lord and Lady Baden-Powell in England and all America, and all the world and we're going to start it tonight!"

That "something for the girls" was Girl Scouting.

From the first troop of eighteen girls sixty years ago to todays nearly four million girls men, and women, Girl Scouting has been and still is one of It is a youth movement "dedicated to the purpose of inspiring girls with the highest ideals of character, conduct, patriotism, and service that they may become happy and resourceful citizens."

Juliette Low once said to her girls and leaders, "Dare to do the improbable and dream the impossible." This has been a challenge the Girl Scouts have held on to through the years. Their byword has been action - social action, community service action, ecological action. Girl Scouts of all ethnic, economic, and cultural backgrounds work with people, giving over a million hours of their time each year. They are involved today for a better tomorrow.

As we mark Girl Scouts' 60th Birthday this year, it is our pleasure to extend congratulations and thanks to all Girl

The Editor, Times-Virginian
The Newspaper
Appomattox, Virginia

Dear Sir:

I have exhausted all possibilities of getting in touch with members of the Jack D. Harvey (Harvie) family who were residents of Campbell County, Va., at one time, except a direct appeal through local newspapers. I am preparing material for publication of a book and would especially like to learn something of this family before the manuscript is turned over to the publisher. I do hope it will be possible for you to print the following.

From records at Campbell Court House Clarisa Reid and Jack D. Harvey (Harvie) were married December 25, 1807, with the consent of John Reid, father of the bride. Theodore Mann and boys Sunday night. Mr. and Mrs. Herman Nash and Mr. George Nash visited Mr. and Mrs. Richard Nash Sunday afternoon.

Reid, brother of the bride, was one of the bondsmen and he and William W. Williams were the witnesses. Williams later married Clarisa's younger sister Martha F.

According to U. S. Census records for Campbell County for the year 1820 Jack Harvey had four sons under age 16 and would have been between the ages of 26 and 45 himself. Neighbors were Thomas Harvey and John W. Harvey.

In the census record for 1830 Jack Harvey was between the ages of 40 and 50 and still had four sons and three daughters. By 1840 the census records shows one son age 20/30 and two daughters age 15/20.

At one time Jack D. Harvey and Theodore Reid were businessmen partners as John Reid under date of March 10, 1809, made the following power of attorney. "Know all men by these presents that I, John Reid of the County of Campbell and State of Virginia have constituted and appointed my son Theodore my lawful attorney to collect all debts due to me Westward of Campbell County and also Jack D. Harvie & Co. and Reid and Harvie, vesting him with full power and authority to sue for

DECORATED EGGS TO BE EXHIBITED

An exhibit of decorated eggs will be shown at Fidelity National Bank, Main Street, Appomattox during the week of March 27. All craft work has been done by pupils of Mrs. Dixie Staten.

These are "real" eggs, not plastic, and are decorated with jewels, sequins and other materials making the eggs jewel boxes and other decorative accessories.

Exhibitors include Mary Alma Hudson, Edith Scruggs, Jean LeGrand, Elizabeth Robinson, Jacqueline Cobbs and others.

GIFT OF EGGS FOR VISITOR

Dr. John Wilson, pediatrician of the U.VA. staff and a clinic in Scottsville, Va., was a visitor recently to Appomattox Court House Presbyterian Church. He expressed special interest in green eggs, laid by a South American chicken -- and a novelty enjoyed by several Appomattox householders.

As the result of an inquiry, Mrs. A. A. (Deb) Babcock brought a half-dozen of the blue-green eggs to the TIMES-VIRGINIAN. Dr. Wilson is looking for an Aracauans hen to add to his flock of chickens on his and recover the same in the same manner that I myself might do."

I will appreciate hearing from anyone who might be a descendant of Clarisa Reid & Jack D. Harvey; also Martha F. & William W. Williams; or would be most grateful to anyone who can tell me how I might get in touch with any members of the foregoing.

With my sincere thanks,

Yours very truly,
Mrs. Elizabeth Reid Austin

Head In The Clouds?

Larry Young just seems to have his "head in the clouds" lately's for failed to obscure the fact, however, that can Legion Post 107 would like to give this 8 horse- riding mower to someone on Friday, April 21 at 7 p. the Triangle Plaza Shopping Center. All donations will ed to keep the flame burning at the War Monument the Court House square, to pay for some expenses at the erican Legion Post and to replace some tables there. appears to be riding "off into the sunset" on the back this truck, but he does want to point out that the mower has forward speeds and reverse and seven cutting . And with spring almost officially here, why not see Legion member who has an interesting book of tickets to are with friends.
